The 1998 aerial sketch mapping survey was conducted on June 23 and 24, 1998. The flight was conducted by Rod Whiteman, as the primary sketch mapper and Martin MacKenzie as an observer. The survey was conducted to detect any visible defoliation, new areas of decline and mortality, areas of blow down, or other disturbances in the Forest.

There was no defoliation or new damage visible from the air this year. We will continue to monitor the Forest with ground surveys, egg mass surveys, and aerial surveys if and when necessary, during the remainder of the year.
